

May 29– July 21, 2012
Apply today!

What is AIM? AIM is a local, intensive mission leadership program for high school students in Friendship Baptist Association.

What will AIM missionaries be doing? In addition to working summer camps, students will be participating in several planned mission and evangelism projects in the association.

Is this all? No... AIM is designed to be an immersion program. Missionaries will be challenged to grow in discipleship through Bible study, worship, prayer, mentoring relationships, accountability groups, and hands-on experience.

Who can apply?

High school students (completed 9th grade–2012 graduates) who are committed Christians. Applicants must be a member of a SBC church and able to commit to serve for 6-8 weeks this summer. In addition, students must exhibit personal and emotional maturity, and have a sense of God's call or leadership in their life.

How do I apply? Fill out the AIM application and return it to the FBA office by April 20, 2012. We will notify applicants of their acceptance.

I still have questions about AIM, where can I get more information? Go to our website, www.FriendshipBaptistAssociation.org and click on the AIM logo.
